MAYORS.

The Urban Future Conference is Europe's largest event for sustainable cities and is the #1 meeting place for dedicated leaders who really care about people and the environment.

This year's event is unique since it's taking place during H22 City Expo – 35 days where 70+ official partners, innovators, world-leading companies, city departments, urban disruptors, associations, and residents explore and develop how we will live in tomorrow's city.

If you are a leader who is passionate about driving change towards a more sustainable city, this is your only option to meet and connect with such a large number of peers.

"IF WE HAVE THE COURAGE TO ACT, AND POLITICIANS NEED TO DO THAT, WE CAN SOLVE ALL THESE PROBLEMS AND ALMOST EVERYTHING ABOUT TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE CREATES NEW JOBS."

Ken Livingstone
Former Mayor of London | UK

"IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO HAVE TRENDSETTERCITIES THAT ARE ABLE TO SHOW THEIRGOOD EXPERIENCES TO INFLUENCE OTHERS."
